Thin Margin for G. O. P.

The size of the Democratic victory, accurately forecasted in these columns, is better understood when given in detail. The Republican majority of 168 in the House has been cut down to approximately 16 and the Republican majority in the Senate of 24 has been cut to 11

In addition to these victories Democratic candidates for Governor were elected in thirteen states which had Republican governors—New York, New Jersey, Ohio, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Oregon, Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, and Tennessee. Twenty-six states of the Union now have Democratic governors, a majority of two in all of the states.

The claim of the Republican that they control both Houses in the Sixty eighth Congress is purely Pickwickian. As a matter of fact they do not have actual control in either House. The balance of power between the Republicans and Democrats is held by Progressives, Independents and Radicals.

It may be assumed that the element holding the balance of power will not cooperate with the Republican reactionaries in matters of legislation. and it may be assumed with equal probability that the reactionaries will not accept the progressive or radical program of their nominal Republican colleagues

The Sixty-eighth Congress promises, therefore, to be one of the most interesting and important of recent years. Its record will undoubtedly determine the domestic issues of the 1924 campaign.

The Co-Operative Spirit

The method of pooling and grading wool as has been employed by the Virginia Co Operative Sheep & Wool Growers' Association, which has recently disposed of this year's holdings and is now paying the members from five to ten cents per pound more than would have been realized without the pool, according to J. H. Meek, Director, Division of Markets of the State Department of Agriculture, is not only of great value in increasing the price received and equitably distributing the returns to growers in accordance with the valve of their products, but has proved the best method of getting growers to produce better wool and properly care for it. Mr. Meek said, "while wool dealers are not anxious about, nor favorable to this; method which enables the producer to make direct sales to the mills, practically all the big mills in the United States are very much pleased with the movement which is going on in other states, as well as Virginia, as they realize it means a better product, better cared for, and put in much nicer condition for them to handle than they have hereto fore been able to get wool."

A series of meeting are now being held over the state in the interest of promoting the pooling system, and those attending these meetings are very anxious that the work be enlarged. A plan for greatly extending the activities of the pooling system will be presented at the annual meeting of the Association to be held in the Chamber of Commerce, Lynchburg, Va., at 10 A. M., December 15th, and wool growers all over the state are invited to be present at this time.

Xmas Money for Tobacco Growers

With a second payment completed in South Carolina and arrangements being made for a second payment in Eastern North Carolina early in December on all tobacco delivered before December first, the Tobacco Growers Association is expecting to largely increase its membership in these belts before the season is over. Without any special effort on the part of the Association new contracts are reaching Raleigh daily from men "who waited to see" and are again thoroughly disgusted with the auction system.

Insistent demands for legal action against contract violators continue to reach headquarters, especially from local units of the Association. In response to this demand the legal department last week filed 54 more suits against members in the 21 counties of North Carolina involving damages of more than $50,000. Some of the first suits filed have been settled out of court while other men are making settlements without waiting to be haled into court.

Arrangements have been made to have warehousemen receive money for damages and forward it to Raleigh where the legal department will decide whether to accept or reject such settlements Each case is being considered on its merits and, while the attorneys are accepting a number of such proffered settlements, they state that in other cases they are rejecting offers to settle where the interests of the association show that the law suit would be better policy.

Over one million dollars was paid the association for tobacco by Reynolds last week.

Many members do not understand the prices fixed for tobacco by the association, but the price was fixed by the officers and the bankers in order to get the cash to advance to the farmers. Now the association has advanced the reselling prices, and the crop is expected to bring the members even more than the published prices At any rate the members are satisfied with the showing made and our banks consider their receipts good security for loans, if they find the first advance does not cover their immediate needs. Save your account of sales and when the third payment is made you can have a hope that you have never had before. Watch the Appomattox local Co Ops. lead the State for loyalty and percentage of good tobacco.

Buckingham

In the great rush men and women are going through each day and part of each night to accumulate almighty dollars and cents we are prone to forget God, and his great mercies towards us; as thanksgiving day approaches we are apt to think more about cranberry sauce and roast turkey, than we are to think of our Maker and are we going to give thanks to Him in full measure for the very beautiful crops he has given us and for the health we enjoy, also for the peace that is restored to us.

I had a letter from a young man today who said he was paying $55 a month for room and board, but that his salary was $200 a month. I had a letter by recent mail from a prospective school teacher who had her own way about spelling words that is she did not spell them like Mr. Webster spells them.

I was in Appomattox county one day last week and I met some genuine old Virginia hospitality and I also saw that Mr. Featherston is having some good work done in the schools.

I ordered school furniture for one of our schools last week and the company sent their regrets that they could not get the goods shipped to them on the rail roads.

The managers of the association warehouse have not handled much tobacco the past week, but they anticipate a rush to the market next week. Mr. J. P. Andrewe, one of the managers was sick at his home Friday and Saturday. The circulating medium will be turned loose as soon as tobacco is marketed. I saw two well grown colts partly broken offered for $75 each.

Samuel Spencer has been quite ill at "Dixie" his home place the past week.

The farm of H. D. Puryear was sold last week at $7500.

John A. Twyman has been riding in his new car to visit the schools the past week.

The fare from Dillwyn to Richmond is $2.99, this reminds me of the department stores why not make it $3.

My landlord has been paying two men 75 cents a day and board and they only shuck and house 4 barrells of corn a day and they refuse to work by the job or by the barrell.

The boys are still twitting me because I did not stay longer in North Carolina.

Judge Hall accompanied by his wife and Miss Ella Moseley motored to Richmond on business and pleasure last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Barrell contemplate a trip to Fredericksburg next week to visit Mr. and Mrs C. Y. Hooper.

The Board of Supervisors met in extra session here Saturday

A friend of mine bought gasoline at 20 cents a gallon delivered by tank, but dealers here are still selling it for 28 cents.

Rocks

Everybody you see down here either tries to sell you some beef or invites you to a corn shucking.

Kirk Paulette "killed two birds with the same rock" last Tuesday he invited the men to come and cut bushes for him and about dinner time he decided to have early supper and shuck out his crop of corn so the ladies cooked supper then helped the men and boys suck corn until 9 o'clock.

Misses Zelice Inge, Odell Dickerson, Nellie Inge and Messrs. Frank Dickerson, Clarence Huffman, Walter Ranson and Robert Roach were guests of Miss Elsie Dickerson Saturday evening; one feature of the evening was music both instrumental and vocal.

The singing school closed at Rocks Saturday and we are proud to say we have some pretty good songsters now.

Holmesy Inge had a serious calamity sometime ago — he had been to Evergreen to take a load of poles and was on his way home, tired, paying little attention to his business, when he happen to look around and found the "hind part" of his wagon gone, he beat it back and found his lost wagod about a mile back.

Lewis Dickerson had worse luck—he got home from Evergreen also pole hauler, unhitched his horses and found he had lost the "hind part" of his wagon.

Bent Creek

The long talked of bridge across the majestic James is going up at last and it affords most of the topic for conversation.

A good many of our farmers have sold tobacco on the open market with very satisfactory prices The union people seem well pleased too. Truly opposition is the life of trade.

Death has again visited our community and taken one of our most respected citizens, and brought sorrow to our homes when on Thursday the 16th, C. W. Phelps was reported dead; he had been in declining health for several months, but no one thought the end so near until about two weeks ago he was taken much worse and grew weaker until the end. Deceased was twice married—his first wife was Miss Sallie North of Appomattox. He has two daughters living by that marriage—Mrs. Florence Hunter, of Boulder, Colo., and Miss Rosa Phelps, of Norfolk. His last wife was Miss Billie Dixon, of Buckingham, who survives him. He also has one sister, Mrs. Bettie Cawthorn of Evergreen. His remains were interred at Maple Grove church The pall bearers were: M H Marks, J. W. C. Martin, A. D Coleman, Willie Smith, A. S Perdew and D. E Walton. Honary pall-bearers were: his nephews—Hector, Edward and Russell Cawthorn, Charley Brown, George and Willie Dixon. The floral designs were beautiful and the flower bearers were: Mrs J. R Hamilton, Mrs. J. R Marks, Misses Gladys Jennings, Lonell Hamilton, Ruth Brown, Callie Harris, Dorris Burks, Weta Phelps and Eula Cumby. Services were conducted by Rev. Goade. He was a good neighbor and kind friend—always ready to visit the sick and do what he could for them. He will be sadly missed in this community as his home was noted for hospitality. A large crowd gathered to witness the burial and pay a last tribute of respect to his memory. His wife and daughters who waited on him so untirly in his last illness have the sympathy of many friends.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The Deciding Factor

Your selection of a bank is naturally influenced by its reputation for safety and conservatism, by the standing which it enjoys in the community.

But, when these qualifications are met, the courteous and friendly helpfulness of its service becomes the deciding factor.

In The Farmers National Bank of Appomattox you find recognized safety and conservatism in policy and practice—and you also find that atmosphere of cordial welcome, and that satisfying personal attention which make your contact with the bank most truly satisfying.
